

ALASKA FORUM ENVIRONMENTAL TRAINING
RURAL ALASKA LANDFILL OPERATOR'S TRAINING
MANAGING HOUSEHOLD HAZARDOUS WASTE IN RURAL COMMUNITIES
REMOTE TECHNICIAN FREON REMOVAL TRAINING

Dec. 17 - 20, 2019
ALASKA TECHNICAL CENTER
834 4th Street, Kotzebue, AK

APPLICATION DEADLINE: DEC. 10, 2019

Training provided at no cost to qualified applicants

Alaska Forum will offer up to 8 Travel Scholarships of $500 to qualified applicants, maximum of one per village. Additionally, Maniilaq will provide lodging and meals at ATC for up to 20 in-region participants on a first come, first served basis. For more information on support from Maniilaq, contact Charlotte Sheridan at charlotte.sheridan@maniilaq.org or 907.442.7783

Space is limited.

To Register: <http://www.cvent.com/d/kyqyy2/4W>

For full class descriptions:

<http://www.akforum.org/apprenticeship/rural-alaska-landfill-operator-ralo-training/>
<http://www.akforum.org/apprenticeship/training-descriptions/>

For more information about this and other trainings offered by the Alaska Forum, contact Meg Burgett: mburgett@akforum.org or 907.202.9612

This training is funded in part by the Alaska Dept. of Labor & Workforce Development State Training and Education Program and the US EPA Environmental Workforce Development Job Training Grant.

